

There are two types of flowers that will make me swoon and sigh, tulips and calla lilies. When I got married, I was able to have a few calla lilies around to make my day extra special but it was too early to have tulips. Although I missed these beautiful flowers at my wedding, they now grace my front yard and every year, I am able to see them and enjoy their beauty. The stitch pattern in these socks form a little cup that remind me of my beloved flowers.

I hope you enjoy them!
